

Jeff Sheffler joined BLC Community Bank in February 2019 as Vice President of Commercial Lending. Jeff has been in banking and financial services in the Fox Valley area for the past 20 years. He is excited to join BLC Community Bank - a local, dynamic institution that places its clients and the community at the heart of its mission. Jeff looks forward to working with businesses of all sizes to provide value-added financial solutions. In addition to conventional lending products, he has a great deal of experience with SBA loans. He is ready to assist you with any questions you may have about our commercial lending products - please contact him today!

In his free time, Jeff enjoys spending time at his family's lake property boating, paddle-boarding, and making S'mores with his wife and their two children. Additionally, in the warm weather months, you may find him exploring Wisconsin's great "back roads" while on his Harley Davidson.

"I am excited to serve BLC's existing long-standing relationships and introduce the great suite of services the bank offers to new customers."

BLC Community Bank offers a wide variety of business loan products. Our friendly and experienced lenders will make your borrowing experience a satisfying one.
