

Adam Lange is Vice President and Chief Lending Officer for BLC Community Bank. He enjoys working with business clients of all sizes. His main goal is to listen to his clients, be responsive to their needs, and offer valuable solutions that can help their business grow and be successful. Adam has more than 15 years of banking experience.

Adam is a graduate of UW-Madison. He grew up in Little Chute, and currently resides in Appleton with his wife and four daughters. They are active members of St. John’s Church in Little Chute.

COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERING:

- ♥ Great Wisconsin Cheese Festival Board Member
- ♥ Heart of the Valley Chamber of Commerce Board Member
- ♥ Heart of the Valley YMCA Board Member
- ♥ JDRF Research Foundation “One Walk” Committee Member
- ♥ United Way Volunteer Campaign Manager

“I greatly appreciate the opportunity to partner with local businesses, and help them grow and succeed!”

BLC Community Bank offers a wide variety of business loan products. Our friendly and experienced lenders will make your borrowing experience a satisfying one.

- 💰 Commercial Loans
- 💰 Lines of Credit
- 💰 Real Estate Loans
- 💰 Letters of Credit

BLC Community Bank is committed to the growth and development of the communities we serve. Our experienced commercial lenders are ready to provide you with personal, friendly service to develop a loan package that meets your business objectives. As a locally owned bank, all lending decisions are made locally by individuals that understand our communities and are dedicated to helping them prosper.

